

Free expression of diverse opinions is critical to a functioning democracy, and multiple ownership of media is critical to this diversity. We urge you to continue the present rules of ownership. To change now with little time for public education and reaction, much corporate input to the FCC, and only one public meeting would be truly outrageous.